Preamble

WHEREAS recognition of the inherent dignity and the equal and inalienable rights of all persons is the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world;

WHEREAS it is recognized in Alberta as a fundamental principle and as a matter of public policy that all persons are equal in: dignity, rights and responsibilities without regard to race, religious beliefs, colour, gender, gender identity, gender expression, physical disability, mental disability, age, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, source of income, family status or sexual orientation;

WHEREAS multiculturalism describes the diverse racial and cultural composition of Alberta society and its importance is recognized in Alberta as a fundamental principle and a matter of public policy;

WHEREAS it is recognized in Alberta as a fundamental principle and as a matter of public policy that all Albertans should share in an awareness and appreciation of the diverse racial and cultural composition of society and that the richness of life in Alberta is enhanced by sharing that diversity; and

WHEREAS it is fitting that these principles be affirmed by the Legislature of Alberta in an enactment whereby those equality rights and that diversity may be protected:

THEREFORE HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of Alberta, enacts as follows:

Effect of Act on provincial laws

1(1) Unless it is expressly declared by an Act of the Legislature that it operates notwithstanding this Act, every law of Alberta is inoperative to the extent that it authorizes or requires the doing of anything prohibited by this Act.

(2) In this Act, “law of Alberta” means an Act of the Legislature of Alberta enacted before or after the commencement of this Act, any order, rule or regulation made under an Act of the Legislature of Alberta, and any law in force in Alberta on January 1, 1973 that is subject to be repealed, abolished or altered by the Legislature of Alberta.

Code of Conduct

Discrimination re publications, notices

3(1) No person shall publish, issue or display or cause to be published, issued or displayed before the public any statement, publication, notice, sign, symbol, emblem or other representation that

- (a) indicates discrimination or an intention to discriminate against a person or a class of persons, or
- (b) is likely to expose a person or a class of persons to hatred or contempt

because of the race, religious beliefs, colour, gender, gender identity, gender expression, physical disability, mental disability, age, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, source of income, family status or sexual orientation of that person or class of persons.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to interfere with the free expression of opinion on any subject.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to

- (a) the display of a notice, sign, symbol, emblem or other representation displayed to identify facilities customarily used by one gender,
- (b) the display or publication by or on behalf of an organization that
 - (i) is composed exclusively or primarily of persons having the same political or religious beliefs, ancestry or place of origin, and
 - (ii) is not operated for private profit,of a statement, publication, notice, sign, symbol, emblem or other representation indicating a purpose or membership qualification of the organization, or
- (c) the display or publication of a form of application or an advertisement that may be used, circulated or published pursuant to section 8(2), if the statement, publication, notice, sign, symbol, emblem or other representation is not derogatory, offensive or otherwise improper.

Benefit based on age

4.1 Section 4 as it relates to age does not apply with respect to the conferring of a benefit on

- (a) minors or any age-based class of minors, or
- (b) individuals who have reached a specified age not less than 55.

2017 c17 s2

Minimum age for occupancy

4.2(1) Section 4 as it relates to age and family status does not apply with respect to a minimum age for occupancy that applies to

- (a) a residential unit as defined in the Condominium Property Act,
- (b) a housing unit as defined in the Cooperatives Act, or
- (c) a mobile home site as defined in the Mobile Home Sites Tenancies Act, if that minimum age for occupancy was in existence before January 1, 2018.

(2) Section 4 as it relates to age and family status does not apply with respect to a minimum age for occupancy that applies to accommodation at premises in which every unit or site is reserved for occupancy by one individual who has reached a specified age not less than 55 or by two or more individuals at least one of whom has reached a specified age not less than 55.

(3) A minimum age for occupancy under subsection (2)

- (a) must not prevent occupancy by a prescribed class of individuals or in the prescribed circumstances, and
- (b) may permit occupancy by a prescribed class of individuals or in the prescribed circumstances.

(4) If a minimum age for occupancy is adopted in accordance with subsection (2), the minimum age for occupancy shall not be considered to be non-compliant with subsection (2) by reason of continued occupation by individuals who were resident in the premises before that minimum age for occupancy was adopted and who do not conform to the minimum age for occupancy, to subsection (2) or to the regulations referred to in subsection (3).

2017 c17 s2

Discrimination re tenancy

5(1) No person shall

- (a) deny to any person or class of persons the right to occupy as a tenant any commercial unit or self-contained dwelling unit that is advertised or otherwise in any way represented as being available for occupancy by a tenant, or
- (b) discriminate against any person or class of persons with respect to any term or condition of the tenancy of any commercial unit or self-contained dwelling unit,

because of the race, religious beliefs, colour, gender, gender identity, gender expression, physical disability, mental disability, age, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, source of income, family status or sexual orientation of that person or class of persons or of any other person or class of persons.

(2) Subsection (1) as it relates to age and family status does not apply with respect to a minimum age for occupancy for premises that contain a unit or site to which section 4.2(1) applies.

(3) Subsection (1) as it relates to age and family status does not apply with respect to a minimum age for occupancy that applies to a unit or site at premises in which every unit or site is reserved for occupancy by one individual who has reached a specified age not less than 55 or by two or more individuals at least one of whom has reached a specified age not less than 55.

(4) A minimum age for occupancy under subsection (3)

- (a) must not prevent occupancy by a prescribed class of individuals or in the prescribed circumstances, and
- (b) may permit occupancy by a prescribed class of individuals or in the prescribed circumstances.

(5) If a landlord adopts a minimum age for occupancy in accordance with subsection (3), the minimum age for occupancy shall not be considered to be non-compliant with subsection (3) by reason of continued occupation by individuals who were resident in the premises before that minimum age for occupancy was adopted and who do not conform to the minimum age for occupancy, to subsection (3) or to the regulations under subsection (4).

Alberta Human Rights Commission

15(1) The Alberta Human Rights and Citizenship Commission is continued under the name “Alberta Human Rights Commission” and consists of the members appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council.

(2) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may designate one of the members as Chief of the Commission and Tribunals.

(3) The Minister may designate one of the members of the Commission as Acting Chief of the Commission and Tribunals, and the Acting Chief so designated has, during the absence of the Chief of the Commission and Tribunals, the powers and duties of the Chief of the Commission and Tribunals.

(4) The Chief of the Commission and Tribunals and other members of the Commission shall receive remuneration and expenses for their services as prescribed by the Minister.

RSA 2000 cH-14 s15;2009 c26 s12

Functions of Commission

16(1) It is the function of the Commission

- (a) to forward the principle that all persons are equal in: dignity, rights and responsibilities without regard to race, religious beliefs, colour, gender, gender identity, gender expression, physical disability, mental disability, age, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, source of income, family status or sexual orientation,

- (b) to promote awareness and appreciation of and respect for the multicultural heritage of Alberta society,
- (c) to promote an environment in which all Albertans can participate in and contribute to the cultural, social, economic and political life of Alberta,
- (d) to encourage all sectors of Alberta society to provide equality of opportunity,
- (e) to research, develop and conduct educational programs designed to eliminate discriminatory practices related to race, religious beliefs, colour, gender, gender identity, gender expression, physical disability, mental disability, age, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, source of income, family status or sexual orientation,
- (f) to promote an understanding of, acceptance of and compliance with this Act,
- (g) to encourage and co-ordinate both public and private human rights programs and activities, and
- (h) to advise the Minister on matters related to this Act.

(2) The Commission may delegate in writing to a member or to a person referred to in section 18 any of its functions, powers or duties.

Bylaws

17(1) The Commission may make bylaws respecting

- (a) the carrying out of its powers, duties and functions under this Act,
- (b) administrative, practical and procedural matters related to the filing and handling of complaints under this Act, including but not limited to
 - (i) complaints and the director's exercise of functions, duties and powers with respect to complaints,
 - (ii) appeal proceedings referred to in section 26, and
 - (iii) proceedings before a human rights tribunal, and

- (c) administrative, practical and procedural matters for which no express or only partial provision has otherwise been made in this Act, including but not limited to bylaws authorizing the director, Chief of the Commission and Tribunals or a human rights tribunal to
 - (i) waive or vary the application to a proceeding of a bylaw or of a time limit established by a bylaw, so long as the Act is complied with,
 - (ii) define or narrow the issues required to dispose of a complaint and limit the evidence and submissions of the parties on issues,
 - (iii) determine the order in which the issues and evidence in a proceeding will be considered,
 - (iv) establish forms, guidelines, practice directions and procedures in respect of this Act and the bylaws, and
 - (v) with respect to a human rights tribunal, perform the functions and exercise the powers and duties of the tribunal as if its proceeding were an inquiry under the Public Inquiries Act.

(2) The Regulations Act does not apply to bylaws of the Commission.

(3) Bylaws of the Commission are not effective until they have been approved by the Minister.

(4) This section and the bylaws shall be liberally construed to permit the use of policies, practices, hearings and other procedures, including alternatives to traditional adjudicative or adversarial procedures that, in the opinion of the Commission, will facilitate fair, just and expeditious resolutions of the merits of complaints under this Act.

Carriage of proceeding

29(1) The director has carriage of a proceeding before a human rights tribunal except

- (a) where the Chief of the Commission and Tribunals or a member of the Commission has made a decision under section 26(3) that the complaint should not have been dismissed or that the proposed settlement was not fair and reasonable, or
- (b) where, in the opinion of the director, the director's involvement is not necessary or consistent with the public interest in view of the likely evidence or the issues to be resolved in the proceeding, in which case the complainant has carriage of the proceeding.

(2) The director shall not have carriage of a proceeding before a court without the approval in writing of the Chief of the Commission and Tribunals.

(3) Where the director has carriage of a proceeding, the director may determine the nature and extent of the director's participation in the proceeding.

Procedural rules

30(1) The parties to a proceeding before a human rights tribunal are entitled to appear and be represented by counsel at a hearing held by the tribunal.

(2) Evidence may be given before a human rights tribunal in any manner that the tribunal considers appropriate, and the tribunal is not bound by the rules of law respecting evidence in judicial proceedings.

(3) A human rights tribunal, on proof of service of notice of a hearing in accordance with this Act on the person against whom a complaint was made, may proceed with the hearing in the absence of that person and decide on the matter being heard in the same way as though that person were in attendance.

(4) A hearing before a human rights tribunal shall be open to the public unless, on the application of any party, the human rights tribunal decides that it would be advisable to hold the hearing in private

- (a) because of the confidential nature of the matter to be heard, or
- (b) because of the potential adverse effect on any of the parties, other than the person against whom the complaint was made.

RSA 2000 cH-14 s30;2009 c26 s21

Question of law

31 A human rights tribunal may, at any stage of the proceedings before it, state in the form of a special case for the opinion of the Court of King's Bench any question of law arising in the course of the proceedings, and may adjourn the proceedings for the purpose.

Powers of tribunal

32(1) A human rights tribunal

- (a) shall, if it finds that
 - (i) a complaint is without merit, order that the complaint be dismissed, or
 - (ii) a part of a complaint is without merit, order that the part be dismissed,and
- (b) may, if it finds that a complaint has merit in whole or in part, order the person against whom the finding was made to do any or all of the following:
 - (i) to cease the contravention complained of;
 - (ii) to refrain in the future from committing the same or any similar contravention;
 - (iii) to make available to the person dealt with contrary to this Act the rights, opportunities or privileges that person was denied contrary to this Act;
 - (iv) to compensate the person dealt with contrary to this Act for all or any part of any wages or income lost or expenses incurred by reason of the contravention of this Act;
 - (v) to take any other action the tribunal considers proper to place the person dealt with contrary to this Act in the position the person would have been in but for the contravention of this Act.

(2) A human rights tribunal may make any order as to costs that it considers appropriate.

(3) A human rights tribunal shall serve a copy of its decision, including the findings of fact on which the decision was based and the reasons for the decision, on the parties to the proceeding.

RSA 2000 cH-14 s32;2009 c26 s23;2021 c25 s2

Reconsideration

33(1) If there is new evidence available that was not available or that for good reason was not presented before the human rights tribunal in the first instance, the tribunal may, on the application of any of the parties or on its own motion, reconsider any matter considered by it and for that purpose has the same power and authority and is subject to the same duties as it had and was subject to in the first instance.

(2) A human rights tribunal may not reconsider a matter under subsection (1) more than 30 days after the date of the decision on the matter in the first instance.

Retroactive compensation limit

34 No settlement effected under this Act and no order made by a human rights tribunal may compensate a person for wages or income lost or expenses incurred prior to 2 years before the date of the complaint under section 20.

RSA 2000 cH-14 s34;2009 c26 s25

Effect of decision

35 A decision of the Chief of the Commission and Tribunals, another member of the Commission or a human rights tribunal is final and binding on the parties, subject to a party's right to judicial review of the decision.

RSA 2000 cH-14 s35;2009 c26 s26;2021 c25 s2

Enforcement of settlement agreement

35.1(1) In the case of a settlement agreement in respect of a proceeding before a human rights tribunal, a party who believes that another party has contravened the settlement agreement may make an application to the tribunal within 6 months after the contravention to which the application relates.

(2) If, on an application under subsection (1), the human rights tribunal determines that a party has contravened the settlement agreement, the tribunal may make any order that it considers appropriate to remedy the contravention.

2021 c25 s2

Entry of order

36 An order made by a human rights tribunal may be filed with the clerk of the Court of King's Bench at the judicial centre closest to the place where the proceeding was held, and on being entered it is enforceable in the same manner as an order of the Court of King's Bench.
